

THE UNSW STAFF SOCIAL CLUB

The largest exhibition ever seen in Australia from The State Hermitage, Russia. Alexander the Great: 2000 years of treasures is the most exciting and prestigious classical culture exhibition ever to be hosted by the Australian Museum in Sydney and features the largest collection of treasures ever to come to Australia from the world famous State Hermitage in St Petersburg, Russia. This exhibition will be exclusive to Sydney. The exhibition includes over 400 objects from classical antiquity through to the modern age from both Western and Non-Western origins, spanning a period of almost 2500 years.

Signature pieces that people travel from all over the world to the State Hermitage to see, including the famous Gonzaga cameo and the polished black basalt statue of Cleopatra VII, will be on display!

Sunday, 6 January 2013, 11.00 a.m. Australian Museum, 6 College St., Sydney.

(please note: your timed ticket is for entry from 11 a.m.-11.30. You should plan to arrive at the museum at least 30 minutes before 11.00 a.m.)

Can I enter Australian Museum with my exhibition ticket? Yes. Your timed entry ticket to the Alexander the Great: 2000 years of treasures exhibition also entitles you entry to Australian Museum's other galleries and permanent exhibitions on the same day that the exhibition ticket is valid for. If you choose to visit the museum's other spaces before your timed ticket entry to the exhibition, please make sure you arrive at the exhibition at the time on your ticket.

How long does it take to see the exhibition? It is estimated that the average visit to the exhibition will be 75-90 minutes in a self-guided manner.

Is there a restriction to how long I can spend in the exhibition: While entry to the exhibition must be within the time slot on your ticket, (in this case 11-11.30) , you can spend as long in the exhibition as you like on the day.
