

THE UNSW STAFF SOCIAL CLUB
Bundanoon Garden Ramble - Sunday 24th of October 2010

Approximate Itinerary

7.00sharp Leave UNSW (just inside Gate 14, Barker St)
9.30-10.15 Soldiers' Memorial Hall (morning tea at own expense at any of the cafes in the area)
10.15-12.30 Visit to several private spring gardens
There are a number of gardens open on that date – and we will endeavour to visit as many as we can – including: The Country Garden Market, with stalls in the Soldiers' Memorial Hall.

Several of the gardens, ranging from regular town blocks to small acreage, will be open for the first time. Some are relatively new and others are well established but, as always, a garden is never 'finished'. They are, therefore, works in progress and will provide great interest for those who are expecting to enjoy a day in lovely places as well as those serious horticulturalists with a deep interest in plants. The enthusiasm and expertise of owners of the gardens will be obvious. All will be very happy to talk with you, to share their personal enthusiasms and to answer your questions.

12.30-1.30 Lunch at The Bundanoon Club – 2 course meal and tea/coffee
1.30-3.00 Visit to several private spring gardens
6.15 approx Arrive UNSW

The Bundanoon Hotel

2 course lunch and tea/coffee will be served.{alternate serves: gnocchi or fish}

Please note on the day you will be provided with a list of the gardens to be visited.
