RAN Heritage Centre, Garden Island

The RAN Heritage Centre is located at Garden Island. This Public Access Precinct contains a number of relics from Garden Island's long history. These include the earliest known white graffiti in east Australia (January 1788), fortifications from the colonial period, the first grass tennis court in Australia, heritage gardens, beautiful grass verges, picnic tables and seating.

Explore and experience the story of Australia's Navy from colonial times to the present day within the beautiful and historic northern precinct of Garden Island. The Centre opened in 2005 in 2 renovated National Estate listed buildings: The Gun Mounting Workshop (1922) and the Boatshed (1890) as the setting to exhibit the Naval Heritage Collection. This nationally significant Collection holds the artefacts of Navy's history with many items on display having never been seen by the general public.

The Centre also exhibits over 3000 artefacts from the history of the Navy. Since the Navy Heritage Centre opened in 2005 over 100,000 visitors, including school groups and private tours have enjoyed and experienced the 'In Peace and War' exhibition. As well as sampling the fine fare offered by the Salthorse Café, with its magnificent Sydney Harbour view as a backdrop, visitors have enjoyed the hidden gem that is the quiet gardens and grassed areas behind the Heritage Centre. You will also have some free time to watch the boats pass by and the changing moods of the harbour in this most idyllic location.
