Leura Mall (please note the Village Fair is not held on that day)

Leura is renowned for its shops and you could easily spend your whole day browsing and buying on The Mall and Megalong Street. You can find a variety of items in multi-room shops, galleries, one in an old church. The remarkable thing about shopping in Leura is the proximity of its shopping district. As if for your convenience, specialty shops, restaurants and cafés and stores selling everyday necessities line up, side by side, on the street fronts, up a flight of stairs or tucked away in arcade fashion. It is possible to shop immediately as you step from your car for a number of stylish shops are located in turn-of-the-century cottages alongside the only planned car park. Morning tea (own expense) at one of the local cafes.

Private Gardens
