Moroccan Feast Lunch
Sunday 19 August 2012

In the heart of Sydney’s eastern suburb, the owner of Moroccan Feast has created a Moroccan atmosphere, which through its traditional themes, colours, scents and flavours, transports you to far away Morocco. The dishes are cooked and served in the centuries-old tradition that has been passed down from Moroccan mother to daughter for many generations...with the number one rule in mind that guarantees that special taste: To cook from the heart.

Moroccan Feast want to give customers a unique dining experience, so everything you eat is traditional Moroccan – composed of authentic typical ingredients and old recipes. You’ll find a warm and relaxing Moroccan atmosphere with friendly staff, surrounded by genuine antique decorations, furnishings and charming traditional lanterns. Close your eyes and take in the Moroccan rhythms, fragrances and tastes...it’s a sensual experience that you won’t forget.

The Moroccan kitchen has a rich history and its dishes provide bountiful variety. Moroccan food is one of the most cleverly balanced cuisines on earth: spices are used to enhance the flavour of dishes and there is nothing like the seductive, warm waft of the delicious spices as you open the lid of the Tajine. The Morocco kitchen mixes Arab, Berber, Moorish, Middle Eastern, Mediterranean and African cuisines. The cooks refined Moroccan cuisine over the centuries and created the basis for what is known as Moroccan cuisine today.

A banquet lunch will be served - starters, main meal, dessert, mint tea and soft drinks. Other drinks at your own expense. Moroccan Feast is licensed and BYO ($4 wine corkage per person – own expense).
