The Honey Shed:

The Honey Shed is the home of Blue Mountains Honey and their famous products. Blue Mountains Honey was started 30 years ago by Genevieve and Stephen Craig after friends and family refused to take any more of their delicious honey. Blue Mountains Honey products have been seen in David Jones Australia wide, Coles, IGA, Small Deli's and grocers. Now the best place to find their product is at The Honey Shed.

The Honey Shed was established in 2010 after the high rents of the Blue Mountains and Penrith area and the GFC were impacting on the business. Steve was heading back to Penrith after spending a week with their bees in Picton and saw the for lease sign in a paddock that had grass growing several feet long and he could barely see the shed. It seemed like the perfect place to relocate. Now Genevieve, Steve and their daughter Emma are turning the business into a real destination with event and a small café in the works.

Sample of their products available for purchase: Natural honey, jams, condiments, gourmet honey, honey dressings, skin care, hampers and gifts.
